Dear Friends,

Yumi no Kokoro, the last book in which Genshiro Inagaki Sensei wanted to stress out the fundamentals of the Heki School and of His thoughts, has been out of print for years.

Through combined efforts, Yumi no Kokoro is newly available, with the same contents of the former book, in English, Italian and Japanese so that all Heki Kyudokas, older as well fresher practitioners, may peruse and treasure it again.

Copy cover price is 17,00 €.

Consistent orders (minimum orders of 6 copies) grouped by Club will allow us to inscribe the Club among the favored by a rebate of 20% (shipping costs will be determined from time to time depending on the destinations).

The rebate is valid until May 31, 2014.

Below this letter all the details to order the book

Awaiting your kind reply we remain, faithfully yours,
